

Anna Tindall

Associate

---

I am an associate in Fox Williams' travel team. My areas of interest are advising on travel regulatory issues, aviation specific matters and general commercial work.

---

Anna is a travel and aviation commercial lawyer. Anna is interested in the regulation that supports the travel industry and the various protections put in place to support consumers and travel companies alike. Anna also has a keen interest in aviation specific matters where she is able to advise on contractual, regulatory and compliance issues. Anna assists the travel team in working with our clients that include, travel agencies, online booking platforms and tour operators.

Anna is a member of the firm's commerce and technology team where she assists on mainly travel matters but she is also able to advise on general commercial assignments and projects.

Anna has previously worked and lived in Madrid and Barcelona and she speaks conversational Spanish.

Legal Expertise

---

- Travel regulation
- Aviation Sector – including air charter brokering, terms and conditions of carriage, aircraft management contracts, compliance, and regulation
- General commercial work