

Ashkon Camyab

Associate

I am an associate in the commercial and technology team, advising on a range of commercial matters, with a particular focus on intellectual property.

Ash joined Fox Williams in March 2022 and qualified into the firm's commercial and technology team in March 2024, having completed his seats in the financial services, commerce and technology, employment and litigation teams

Prior to joining the firm, Ashkon completed his undergraduate Law degree at the University of Manchester. He then attained a Distinction in his LLM LPC from BPP University.

Ashkon can speak Farsi to a conversational standard.