Ben Brewer

Associate

I am an associate in the Real Estate team, advising a broad range of clients of parties on real estate matters.

Ben joined the Real Estate team at Fox Williams in November 2026 from a leading regional law firm.

Ben regularly acts for individuals and corporations on the acquisitions and disposal of property for investment and development purposes. Ben also advises on landlord and tenant transactions, including the negotiation of leases and agreements for lease and acts on lending and refinancing matters for both borrowers and lenders.

Ben also has experience assisting on corporate transactions where real estate forms part of the wider deal, working closely with colleagues and clients to identify, manage and progress the property aspects of the transaction.
