Con Ray

Trainee Solicitor

I am a trainee solicitor currently in my third seat within Fox Williams' financial services team.

Con joined Fox Williams as a trainee solicitor in September 2025, having previously worked as a paralegal within the firm's real estate team where he dealt with a wide variety of both contentious and transactional matters. Before working at Fox Williams, Con worked in the real estate team of a large national firm. He is currently completing his third seat in the financial services team and having recently completed his second seat in the corporate team and first seat in the employment team.

Con studied Law at the University of Exeter, where he attained a first-class LLB degree with a Dean's Commendation and was awarded the Law School's prize for making the greatest contribution to pro bono projects amongst his cohort. Con obtained his LPC and LLM from the University of Law, achieving a distinction in both awards.
