

Ed Bellamy

Partner

---

I am a partner in the Fox Williams' financial services team. I specialise in advising originators and financiers with respect to a wide range of structured finance products and other financing transactions.

---

Ed is a partner in the Fox Williams financial services team. Drawing on many years of experience both in private practice and in-house at a major buy-side financial institution, he advises originators, financial institutions, private credit funds, investors, servicers and other market participants with respect to public and private securitisations. He also has experience with warehouse financings, forward flow transactions, portfolio sales, restructurings and related derivative/regulatory capital transactions. He covers a wide variety of asset classes including residential and commercial mortgage loans, speciality finance, consumer loans, auto loans, NPLs, trade receivables and corporate loans.

Ed has significant experience representing credit funds, banks and borrowers in commercial real estate financing transactions across a range of financing structures, including loan-on-loan, mezzanine and development facilities. Further Ed has a broad range of debt capital markets experience.

Ed joined Fox Williams in October 2024 from Dentons with prior experience at Paul Hastings, Skadden, Cadwalader and as Senior Legal Counsel at Insight Investment.

Ed regularly has articles published in leading banking and finance and other industry magazines and is an active participant in a number of structured finance/securitisation industry groups.

Legal Expertise

---

- Structured Finance/Securitisation
- Banking and Debt Finance
- Debt Portfolio Sales
- Real Estate Finance
- Debt Capital Markets