

Georgie Glover

Associate

I am an associate in Fox Williams' corporate team, advising on a range of domestic and cross-border transactions.

Georgie Glover is an associate in the corporate team. She qualified as a solicitor in September 2019 and spent three years at another law firm in London, before joining Fox Williams in September 2022.

Georgie's experience includes advising private and public companies on a broad range of corporate matters, including acquisitions and disposals, IPOs and capital market transactions, corporate restructurings, shareholder arrangements and general corporate governance matters.

Georgie advises clients across all sectors on a variety of corporate matters and has a particular interest in the fashion sector. She is passionate about CSR and is a member of Fox Williams' Social & Charities Committee.
