

Georgina Candy

Associate

I am an associate in Fox Williams' financial services regulatory team, with a special interest in insurance and InsurTech.

Georgina specialises in advising insurance companies on non-contentious matters. Her experience to date includes advising on a number of insurance-related matters including insurance M&A, business transfers under Part VII of FSMA and schemes of arrangement under part 26 of the Companies Act 2006. Georgina has a particular interest in InsurTech.

Georgina joined Fox Williams LLP in October 2020, after training at Hogan Lovells International LLP. Whilst at Hogan Lovells, she completed a client secondment to the consumer credit team at Lloyd's Banking Group.
