

Gia Andreou

Associate

I'm an associate in Fox Williams' dispute resolution team.

Gia joined Fox Williams in September 2021 and qualified into the firm's dispute resolution team in September 2023, having completed her seats in the corporate, dispute resolution (commercial litigation and international arbitration), employment and commerce and technology (C&T) teams.

Prior to joining the firm, Gia completed her Law degree at the University of Exeter. She then completed the LPC at the University of Law (Moorgate) to a distinction grade.

Gia can speak Greek to a semi-fluent standard.

Experience

- Acted for a Defendant group of companies in a claim by Canon Medical Systems Limited (subsidiary of Canon Inc) in relation to the provision of transportable medical imaging equipment (principally mobile and relocatable CT and MRI scanners).
