Guy is a corporate partner who advises on a wide range of corporate matters, including mergers & acquisitions, fundraisings (including IPOs, secondary offerings and venture capital investment rounds), joint ventures and corporate reorganisations. Guy has particular expertise in public takeovers.

Guy works with a variety of clients, including AIM and Main Market listed companies, institutional investors, family offices, activist shareholders, fast growing start-ups and entrepreneurs. He also advises investment banks and financial advisers in their capacity as sponsors, nomads and brokers to listed companies.

Guy advises clients across a range of industries, including technology, financial services and fintech. He is particularly active in alternative finance and wealthtech, and acts for numerous small and mid-sized banks including challengers.

He is a regular speaker at financial services and fintech events and has had articles and comments published in leading legal industry journals such as Practical Law Company's quarterly publication.

Clients have described Guy as "marries an eye for detail with a commercial nous that really cuts through the issues"; "Strong in public takeovers and equity capital markets". And "Guy Morgan and his team were very responsive, knowledgeable, and practical. I enjoyed working with them and would seek their counsel again."
