

Jacqui Watson

Legal Support Manager

I am the legal support manager at Fox Williams'. I am responsible for leading and managing the administrative function. I oversee the smooth day to day operations of the Legal / Administrative team supporting the lawyers within Fox Williams.

Jacqui is Fox Williams' legal support manager with over 20 years' experience within professional services. She oversees the smooth operations of the legal / administrative function supporting our lawyers and is responsible for monitoring, enhancing and developing processes and procedures to ensure consistent quality and enhance efficiency. Jacqui has directed business transformation in respect of the administrative function, identifying and managing change.

Jacqui is also an active member of our D&I Forum. She manages Fox Williams' ongoing relationship with upReach as part of our commitment to improving social mobility in the legal sector.

Memberships

- Chartered Institute of Personnel & Development