

Jeremy Gubbay

Partner, Chief Operating Officer

I am the chief operating officer at Fox Williams. I am responsible for all of the operations of the firm including Finance, IT, HR, Risk Management and Office Services. I also work closely with the firm's Partnership Board on strategic projects and am responsible for driving the implementation of the strategy.

As a chartered accountant with extensive experience in financial, treasury and general management gained from a career in industry prior to joining the legal sector, Jeremy's role is to oversee all aspects of the firm's operations, and to ensure great client service and efficiency is present in everything that we do.

Working closely with the senior partner and partnership board, Jeremy is central to the implementation of the firm's strategy, coordinating projects and ensuring their completion.

In addition to working closely with the heads of the business services departments, his wide-ranging role has included financial management, managing an office move, IT/cyber security, business continuity, systems implementations, innovation, recruitment, insurance, risk management and client complaints.

Jeremy is also the Compliance Officer for Financial Administration.
