

Paul Taylor

Partner

I am a partner in Fox Williams' corporate team. I advise on a broad range of corporate transactions, particularly for SME clients.

As well as advising on a range of international and domestic corporate issues such as mergers & acquisitions, joint ventures and shareholder agreements, Paul has specialist banking, insolvency, restructuring and start-up expertise. Paul also advises clients on breaking shareholder deadlock/conflict situations.

Paul is a member of our technology, financial service and fashion sector groups and advises clients in a range of sectors. He is also a member of our Switzerland and Ireland teams and serves as the firm's training partner.

Legal Expertise

- Banking & insolvency
- Corporate
- Inward investment
- Mergers & acquisitions

Experience

- Acted for Global Marine Services Limited on the restructuring of their group including international JV arrangements.
- Working with several minority shareholders on bringing and settling unfair prejudicial conduct claims.
- Advised the shareholders and management of regulatory infrastructure provider Lawson Conner on the £48 million sale of the business to Astorg private equity.

Advising two Harley Street Drs on the sale of their shareholdings to HCA International.