

Sarah Redmond

Partner

---

I am a partner in Fox Williams' Intellectual property team, and responsible for the day to day management of the Trade Mark and design prosecution practice.

---

Sarah has 28 years experience in the trade mark industry and is involved in all aspects of trade mark protection and portfolio management which includes clearance, filing, prosecution, oppositions, invalidations, assignments and co-existence agreements.

Sarah also advises in relation to trade mark infringement and passing off and has extensive experience in the filing and prosecution of UK and EU designs.

Sarah is a UK and EU qualified Chartered Trade Mark Attorney and Member of CITMA. She is also a member of INTA and sits on the Trade Mark Administrators committee.

Legal Expertise

---

- Trade Mark filing and pre filing advice
- Trade Mark oppositions and cancellations
- Registered designs
- Co-existence agreements
- Particular expertise in the fashion and tech sectors

Experience

---

- Advised a UK finance company with the adoption of various new brands in the UK.
- Advised on the delivery of trade mark portfolio reviews to establish good working relationships with new clients.

- Advised various fashion clients in relation to their brand protection and taking action against third parties.
- Advised Glanbia Performance Nutrition on various worldwide trade marks and oppositions and acted for them in relation to its High Court claim against The Hut Group Limited and The Hut.com.
- Successfully defended an EUIPO opposition in relation to a medical device.

Memberships

---

- CITMA
- INTA