

Scott Steinberg

Associate

I am an associate in Fox Williams' intellectual property team, which includes advising on trade marks, passing off, registered and unregistered designs, copyright, patents and confidential information.

Scott joined Fox Williams in September 2018 and advises clients on a wide range of contentious and non-contentious intellectual property matters. This has included advising and assisting on drafting and responding to pre-action and cease and desist letters; IP cases in the Intellectual Property Enterprise Court and the High Court; the subsistence and protection of IP rights including design and trade mark filings; trade mark oppositions, revocations and cancellations; co-existence agreements; acting against counterfeiters; and commercial agreements relating to IP rights.

Scott recently completed the Oxford University Postgraduate Diploma in Intellectual Property Law and speaks Spanish at an advanced level. Prior to joining Fox Williams, Scott completed his training contract at the London office of a US law firm before qualifying as an IP lawyer and working for a specialist IP law firm.
