

Veronique Bergau

Associate

I am an associate solicitor in Fox Williams' dispute resolution team, acting for clients in relation to general commercial disputes, civil fraud matters and agency law matters.

Veronique advises on a broad range of commercial dispute matters, advising both claimants and defendants. Veronique acts for corporations as well as individuals across a range of sectors, including financial services and professional practices. Her experience includes litigation, mediation and internal investigations.

Veronique joined Fox Williams in 2014 as a Trainee Solicitor and qualified into the Dispute Resolution department in September 2016. She is a member of the Fox Williams civil fraud and agentlaw teams.

Legal Expertise

- Breach of contract issues
- Civil fraud / dishonesty, including freezing injunctions
- Dispute resolution, including court litigation
- High Court employment disputes
- Internal investigations
- Law of agency and distribution
- Mediation
- Shareholder and partnership related disputes

Experience

- Advised a commercial agent in relation to a claim for compensation in the High Court, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.
- Arcadia Petroleum Limited and others v Bosworth and others. Acted on a $335 million oil trading claim brought against our client in the Commercial Court. The claim involves allegations of conspiracy, breach of fiduciary duty, dishonest assistance and knowing receipt.

- Advised a client on successfully setting aside a freezing injunction.

Memberships

- Young Fraud Lawyers Association
- Fraud Women's Network
- London Solicitors Litigation Association