Zara Yunis

Trainee Solicitor

I am a trainee solicitor currently in my first seat within the real estate team."

Zara joined Fox Williams as a trainee solicitor in August 2026 and is currently undertaking her first seat in the real estate team.

Before joining Fox Williams, Zara gained experience as a residential real estate paralegal in the London office of a well-established national law firm, where she supported fee earners on a range of property transactions.

Zara completed her LLB Law degree at the University of Nottingham, achieving a first-class mark for her dissertation. She went on to complete SQE 1 & 2 at BPP University.
